PRESS STATEMENT BY THE MINISTER FOR HEALTH, DR D.N. EVERINGHAM

CONTINUED SUPPORT FOR MENTAL HEALTH PROJECTS IN THREE STATES

The Australian Government today guaranteed continued financial support during 1974/75 under its Community Mental Health Alcoholism and Drug Dependency Program for projects in Western Australia, Tasmania and South Australia.

The three States are to receive a total of $1,430,500 during 1974/75 under the Federal Government's Mental Health and Related Services Assistance Act, which has provided for $7.5 million to be made available for mental health projects in all States during each of the financial years 1973/74 and 1974/75.

Details of the continued grants are as follows:

Dr. Everingham said that the projects outlined above had been chosen for funding under the Community Mental Health Alcoholism and Drug Dependency Program as they represented the best possible use for the States of the $7.5 million available under that Program.

A number of other State projects which were funded by the Australian Government under its Community Mental Health Alcoholism and Drug Dependency Program in 1973/74 have been referred to the Government's Hospitals and Health Services Commission for consideration of further funding under the Community Health Program.
