No. 1007.

An Act to amend "The Land Value Assessment Act, 1893."

[Assented to, November 23rd, 1910.]

BE it Enacted by the Governor of the State of South Australia, with the advice and consent of the Parliament thereof, as follows:

1. This Act may be cited alone as "The Land Value Assessment Act Amendment Act, 1910"; and "The Land Value Assessment Act, 1893," and this Act may be cited together as "The Land Value Assessment Acts, 1893 and 1910." Short title.

2. This Act shall, as far as practicable, be read as one Act with "The Municipal Corporations Act, 1890," and "The Land Value Assessment Act, 1893," in so far as the last mentioned Act relates to Municipalities or Municipal Corporations. Incorporation. 497 of 1890. 573 of 1893.

3. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in section 14 of "The Land Value Assessment Act, 1893," it shall be lawful for the Council from time to time to make its own assessment under Part II. of the said Act, without adopting the Government assessment. Any assessment so made by the Council shall remain in force for such period as the Council determines, not being longer than one year from the making thereof: Provided that, except as aforesaid, the provisions of "The Land Value Assessment Act, 1893," shall, where applicable, apply to any assessment made under this section. Council may make its own assessment.

(2) In

The Land Value Assessment Act Amendment Act.—1910.

(2) In any case where the Council makes its own assessment under the power conferred by this section, any person interested in such assessment, who is dissatisfied therewith with regard to any of the particulars entered in the assessment-book, may appeal against such assessment; and for that purpose he shall have the same rights of appeal as are conferred by section 16 of "The Land Value Assessment Act, 1893," upon the persons therein mentioned, and may exercise such rights within the time and in the manner prescribed by that section.

Amendment of section 16 of L.V. Assessment Act of 1893—
Clerical error.

4. Section 16 of "The Land Value Assessment Act, 1893," is hereby amended by substituting "14" for "11" in the second line thereof.

Subsections (3) and (4) of sec. 37 repealed.

5. Subsections (3) and (4) of section 37 of "The Land Value Assessment Act, 1893," are hereby repealed, and the following subsection is enacted in lieu thereof:

Rating power.

(3) As to any other Corporation, the amount in the pound of any rate shall in no case in any one year be more than will produce a sum equal to that which could, if this Part of this Act were not in operation in the Municipality, be raised under "The Municipal Corporations Act, 1890," by a rate for a similar purpose on an assessment for the same year made under the provisions of the last-mentioned Act.

Subsections (3) and (4) of sec. 39 repealed.

6. Subsections (3) and (4) of section 39 of "The Land Value Assessment Act, 1893," are hereby repealed, and the following subsection is enacted in lieu thereof:—

Special rating power.

(3) As to any other Corporation, the amount in the pound of any such special rate shall in no case in any one year be more than will produce a sum equal to that which could, if this Part of this Act were not in operation in the Municipality, be raised under "The Municipal Corporations Act, 1890," by a special rate for a similar purpose on an assessment for the same year made under the provisions of the last-mentioned Act.

In the name and on behalf of His Majesty, I hereby assent to this Bill.

DAY H. BOSANQUET, Governor.
