

ANNO TERTIO

EDWARDI VII REGIS.

A.D. 1903.

No. 825.

An Act to amend "The Fertilisers Act, 1900."

[Assented to, October 30th, 1903.]

BE it Enacted by the Governor, with the advice and consent of the Parliament of South Australia, as follows:

1. This Act may be cited as "The Fertilisers Amendment Act, 1903," and shall be read and incorporated with "The Fertilisers Act, 1900," hereinafter referred to as the principal Act. Short title.

2. The definition of "fertiliser" in section 3 of the principal Act is hereby amended by striking out all the words after "seaweed," and inserting in lieu thereof the words "or such other material as the Governor in Council may, by Proclamation in the Government Gazette, except." Definition of "fertiliser."
Amendment.

3. Section 10 is hereby amended by inserting after the words "every dealer who" the words "has in his possession, management, control, or direction, or who." Dealer liable who has in his possession deficient fertiliser.

4. Where the manufacturer or importer of any brand of fertiliser shall, pursuant to the provisions of section 5 of the principal Act, have delivered a certificate and paid a licence fee in respect of any fertiliser, it shall not be lawful for any other dealer to sell such brand of fertiliser unless in the invoice or description of the article sold by him he shall set forth therein the exact percentages of the constituent parts of such fertiliser as appear in the certificate delivered by the manufacturer or importer. Dealer, apart from manufacturer or importer, to declare same percentages as those furnished in certificate.

In the name and on behalf of His Majesty, I hereby assent to this Bill.

GEORGE R. LE HUNTE, Governor.
