MESSAGE FROM THE SOUTH AUSTRALIAN PREMIER, DON DUNSTAN,
FOR 1975 NATIONAL JUNIOR SURF LIFESAVING CHAMPIONSHIPS.

I am delighted to have this opportunity to welcome to South Australia competitors in the 1975 National Junior Surf Life Saving Championships.

Our interstate visitors will, I believe, quickly find that South Australia's reputation as the Festival State is a justified one.

We are a friendly, hospitable people and not only that we have some of the best surfing beaches in the country.

Members of Surf Life Saving Clubs enjoy good sport and good fellowship. They also give their time and energy in a vital community service and I have very great respect, indeed, for their dedication and bravery.

The motto of the Surf Life Saving Association of Australia, "Vigilance and Service" is a worthy one and these championships will, I am sure, further enhance its traditions.

Don Dunstan
