MESSAGE FROM THE PREMIER, DON DUNSTAN.

PUBLIC SERVICE REVIEW - CHRISTMAS MESSAGE.

3.12.74

I am delighted again to have this opportunity of wishing all South Australian public servants, through the pages of "The Review" a very happy Christmas and prosperous 1975.

It also gives me the chance to renew my and the Cabinet's thanks for your hard work and dedication during a year that has not always been easy.

I am more than ever convinced that the public service in this State is the best in Australia.

Your support and co-operation is indispensable to the successful implementation of Government policy and I am grateful indeed for the ready way it has been extended at all levels of the administration.
