PRESS RELEASE FROM THE PREMIER, MR. DUNSTAN.

PETROL PERMITS.

2.8.72

New categories of essential users entitled to petrol for specific purposes during the period of restriction were announced by the Premier, Mr. Dunstan, today.

This followed the latest review of South Australian operation of the permit system, Mr. Dunstan said.

The new categories are:-

1. Taxi: operators.
2. Disabled Persons
  - (a) who cannot use public transport for travel to and from work only
  - (b) where there is no public transport between their homes and shopping facilities.
3. Plumbers: sufficient for emergency calls.
4. Electricians: sufficient for emergency calls.
5. Veterinary Surgeons:- to maintain essential services, e.g. in cases of sickness of stock, injections etc.
6. R.S.P.C.A. and Dog Rescue Home, Mitcham
7. Emergency Fire Service: for maintenance of automatic fire alarms - only on certificate of Chief Fire Officer, S.A. Fire Brigade, Mr. Eve.
8. Manufacturers of cakes, pies and pasties etc. - for delivery from factory to canteens, shops etc.
9. Butchers' Small Goods - for delivery from factory to canteens, shops etc.

Applications for permits should be made, in the metropolitan area, to the State Administration Centre or, in country areas, to police stations.
