

ANNO VICESIMO SEPTIMO ET VICESIMO OCTAVO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

A.D. 1864.

No. 14.

An Act to amend the "Licensed Victuallers Act, 1863."

[Assented to, 9th December, 1864.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the "Licensed Victuallers Act, 1863"—Be it therefore Enacted, by the Governor-in-Chief of the Province of South Australia, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly of the said Province, in this present Parliament assembled, as follows:

Preamble.

1. Sections 10 and 73 of the said "Licensed Victuallers Act, 1863," are hereby repealed, except as to anything done or commenced to be done, under the said sections or either of them; and all offences committed before this Act shall come into operation shall be punished in the same manner as if this Act had not been passed, and licences issued under the authority of the "Licensed Victuallers Act, 1863," and not expired at the time this Act shall come into operation, shall confer the same rights and privileges as if granted after the coming into operation of this Act.

Repeal of part of Act No. 9 of 1863.

2. Every wine licence granted under the authority of the "Licensed Victuallers Act, 1863," after this Act shall come into operation, shall authorize the person thereby licensed to sell by retail in the house or shop, or on the premises therein specified, mead, wine, cider, and perry, in quantities of not less than one pint: Provided, that no part thereof shall be consumed on the premises.

Wine Licence.

3. Nothing contained in the "Licensed Victuallers Act, 1863," shall be construed to apply to the sale of ginger beer, or spruce beer, nor to the sale by any person, the occupier of a vineyard, or the Exceptions to provisions of Act No. 9 of 1863.

---

Licensed Victuallers Amendment Act.—1864.

---

the delivery after sale by himself or his servants, of wine of his own manufacture, from fruit grown in the said Province, in quantities of not less than one gallon, to be delivered at one and the same time, nor to any person selling spirituous or distilled perfume, bonâ fide as perfumery, and not to any known and practising apothecaries, physicians, surgeons, chemists, or druggists, prescribing, or administering any liquor simply as medicine, or for medicinal purposes.

Commencement of Act.

4. This Act shall come into operation on the first day of December, 1864, and may be cited as the "Licensed Victuallers Amendment Act, 1864.

In the name and on behalf of the Queen I hereby assent to this Act.

D. DALY, Governor.