PRESS RELEASE FROM THE PREMIER AND TOURISM MINISTER, MR. DUNSTAN.

21/2/72.

NEW AMENITY BLOCK FOR MOONTA BAY CARAVAN PARK.

The State Government is to provide $7,500 towards the cost of a new amenity block at the upper level of the Moonta Bay Caravan Park, the Premier and Tourism Minister, Mr. Dunstan, announced today.

This represents a dollar for dollar subsidy on the estimated cost of $15,000.

Mr. Dunstan said the Moonta Corporation planned to construct an amenity block containing four showers, toilets and handbasins each for men and women.

It would be similar to a block recently constructed by the Corporation at its other caravan park at Port Hughes.

Mr. Dunstan said the Moonta Bay area offered great tourist potential and the new subsidy was a desirable first step towards the progressive rejuvenation of the caravan park.
